An Afternoon of Teaching for Intermediate and Experienced Dancers

November 13, 2011

2-6 p.m. ~ $15

Woman's Club of Palo Alto

475 Homer, at Cowper, about 7 blocks from the Caltrain station in downtown Palo Alto

Caller Susan Petrick Teaching
Music: Three Fifths of Scotch

Debra Tayleur, Eloise Blanchard, Emily Parsons and Del Eckels

Featuring a dancer-driven curriculum:

- The opportunity to talk through Issues as they come up; we set aside question and answer time between dances.
- The opportunity to have your topic added to the program. Have you ever wanted more explanation of how to lead or follow something or have some dance issue that's not been sufficiently addressed? Email us by October 30 and have your topic added to the curriculum.
- Opportunities for dancers to give 2-minute presentations on specific topics that can help all of us improve. Email us by October 30 to confirm the suitability of your proposed topic and that time is available. Positive, constructive topics will be considered seriously.
- The opportunity to help create a fantastic, fun dance full of collaboration and community!

No pre-registration. Please treat this like a class and come early or at least on time!
