

DON'T MISS THE WEST COAST TOUR OF THE BRISTOL PLAYERS

Edward Jay and Fiona Barrow, a multi-talented duo from the southwest of England, will swing through the Bay Area in March. They've got a fantastic reputation in England – they play contra, English country dance, and barn dance/ceilidh [as the Ceilidh Chasers] – and you've got several chances to see them try it all!

First stop: SPRING WEEKEND AT MONTE TOYON, Friday, March 14-16, 2008
For more information about Spring Weekend, visit the website at www.bacds.org/sw

Then after Spring Weekend:

Wednesday, March 19th

English country dance at the Flex-it Aerobics Studio, 425 Evelyn Ave, Mountain View – Alan Winston calling

Thursday, March 20th, as the CEILIDH CHASERS

Barn dance at Humanist Hall, 390 27th St., Oakland (between Telegraph and Broadway – Erik Hoffman and Alan Winston calling

SPECIAL NIGHT AND STARTING TIME: 7 - 10 PM!

Saturday, March 22nd

Experienced English country dance at Grace North Church, 2138 Cedar St. (near Oxford), Berkeley – Sharon Green calling

Wednesday, March 26th

English country dance at Grace North Church, 2138 Cedar St. (near Oxford), Berkeley – Bruce Hamilton calling (Not an open band)

Friday, March 28th

Contra at St. Paul's Church, 43rd Avenue at Judah Street, San Francisco – Charlie Fenton calling

And Saturday, March 29th

Contra at First United Methodist Church of Palo Alto (Hamilton & Webster) – Lynn Ackerson calling

Get a taste of their music in advance at Edward Jay's website: <http://www.edwardjay.co.uk/>