

The BEST of BOTH WORLDS
Save the date for the NEW program

BACDS Spring Fling

Contra and English country dance weekend

March 19-21, 2010

Dance the weekend away among the redwoods of Monterey Bay, just outside of Santa Cruz, CA.

The Weekend Features

- Two parallel dance tracks: you can do all Contra all weekend, all English all weekend, or some of both.
- Couple dance and musician workshops and dancer-led open jam sessions.
- In-depth teaching for novice and intermediate dancers.
- Advanced dance sessions for you to test your mettle.
- A guided hike to explore the verdant coastal redwoods.
- Sing-alongs, an ice cream social & more opportunities to make new friends.

Top Notch Musicians

- The Syncopaths (Ryan McKasson, Jeffrey Spero, Christa Burch and special guest) – noted for their playfulness and the interplay among the musicians
- Waverley Station (Liz Donaldson and David Knight) – strong, powerful musicians versed in Scottish, English and Contra music.
- Kevin Carr, Jim Oakden and Rebecca King – known for elegant English and rocking American, with influences from around the world, Mars and beyond!

Sought-After Callers

- Seth Tepfer, from Atlanta, a dynamite combination with the Syncopaths, is energetic and energizing.
- Tom Roby, now local to New England, with his enthusiasm and joy in motion, will add fun to your dancing with his innovative and exciting playshops.
- James Hutson, a popular Southern California caller who will have you dancing intricate patterns without having to think about it.

Tony Elman will be song leader.

The weekend lasts from Friday evening to Sunday late afternoon. It includes workshop sessions on Saturday morning and afternoon and Sunday morning as well as dance parties Friday and Saturday nights and Sunday afternoon. Campers stay in dormitory-style cabins with modern plumbing. 5 delicious, wholesome meals are included. Special dietary needs are handled well.

Immerse yourself in dance, music, friendship and fun!

Watch for details at bacds.org/sw and on a flyer table near you. Email springfling@bacds.org if you would like notification as soon as registration materials become available.

Brought to you by the Bay Area Country Dance Society (BACDS) in Northern California.