

At The Mendocino Woodlands www.mendocinowoodlands.org;

Daily temperatures can vary as much as 40° from late night to mid-afternoon. It's possible that nighttime/early morning temperatures could drop to c.45°; mid-afternoon temps can reach 85°. If you've never been to the Woodlands, you will be surprised at how chilly nights become so please be prepared by bringing appropriate clothing to keep yourself warm.

Accommodations are rustic cabins set along winding, uneven paths. Shared by two persons, each cabin has four single camp beds, a small closet, a balcony and a fireplace but no electricity. You are welcome to use the open fireplace for light and warmth; firewood will be supplied. For fire safety, candles and gas lanterns are not permitted.

You will be given your cabin assignment upon your arrival at camp.

Centrally located bathhouses have electricity and showers with plenty of hot water. BACDS will provide fragrance-free soap, lotion, shampoo and hair conditioner for use by all campers. An iron and ironing board will be available for use at each bathhouse.

>Please note that we cannot accept visitors during the week, nor are we able to accommodate campers before or after the specified times of camp operation. Pets are strictly not permitted.

There is no mail delivery to the Woodlands. However, mail can be collected at the Post Office in Mendocino, CA, if addressed to you,

Medical Care

An AED is on site!

A basic first aid kit containing bandages, wound cleaners, tape, moleskin and common over-the-counter topical medications will be available in the dance hall. Please supply your own preferred pain and allergy medications. While there are several physicians in the town of Mendocino, the nearest basic emergency room is fifteen miles away, about a forty-minute drive, at the Mendocino Coast District Hospital in Ft. Bragg.
