

Eighteen Country Dances from the Year 1718

George I is on the throne. Both John Walsh and the old Playford house publish complete collections, and Walsh publishes two sets of 24 new dances, one by Nathaniel Kynaston and one by A Person of Quality. English country dancing is all the rage, and new tunes and dances are everywhere.

November 17, 2018

Hillside Club
2286 Cedar St, Berkeley, California

Dancing 6:30-10:00

EXPERIENCED DANCERS ONLY!
(Attendance very limited)

Kalia Kliban, Sharon Green, Mary Luckhardt, Dance Mistresses

Music by Shira Kammen, Judy Linsenberg and friends

This is a connoisseurs' ball. All the dances will be from 1718, though we will perform them in modern English country dance style. Period dress admired, but not required.

Most of the dances will have one walk through; a few set dances will receive a reminder, but no walk through. We plan a rehearsal on the day of the ball; however, in most cases, one rehearsal will probably not be sufficient for you to learn the entire program. For your own enjoyment and that of other dancers, we recommend that you have a minimum of one year of recent English country dance experience. Comfort with triple minor progression and all kinds of heys will be necessary.

Program and experience questions:

kalia.kliban@gmail.com, sharongreen@post.harvard.edu, mary@luckhardt.com

Registration questions: dnewitt@sbcglobal.net

Mail to: 1718 Ball, c/o David Newitt, 561 57th St, Oakland, CA 94609

Name: _____

Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Hospitality is requested for ___ people.

I can provide hospitality for ___ people.

I need / can offer a ride from _____

Registration: $45 x ___ = _____

Donation (for scholarships and general ball expenses) $ _____

I need a scholarship to attend $ - _____

Make checks payable to BACDS Total $ _____